DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 23-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for having the coupon (blank) come to rest beneath the "collar 19 at a pocket 18", does not reasonably provide enablement for the coupon to come to rest beneath "a collar of a packet". The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. On page 15, lines 1-3 of the specification, the applicant describes transferring the blank (11) (equivalent to the claimed coupon) to rest beneath the collar (19) at a pocket (18). From the specification, it is clear to the examiner that the pocket (18) is distinct from the packet (P) which is the final destination of blank. (See also page 18, line 18 through page 19, line 5.)

3. Claims 23-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claims contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventors, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Since the claims were filed to copy another co-pending application 10/158,061, the language of the claims is very different from the language of the specification. The addition of "packet" into the claims calls into question whether the applicant is claiming their invention or attempting to claim a new invention, which is not fully supported by the specification. Applicant invention seems to placing the blanks (11) beneath the collars (19) within the folding device (17). There is no detail of what happens to the blank (11) at this point, instead applicant points to co-pending U.S. Application Serial No. 09/987,210. In this application, it is clear that the blanks (11) come into contact with the collar (19) before they come into contact with the packs (P). (See page 21, lines 20-24 of Serial No. 09/987,210.)

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
